VOLUNTEER POLICIES & PROCEDURES AGREEMENT

- Our events rely heavily on dedicated volunteers who are willing to commit to be in attendance for the duration of the agreed upon scheduled time and carry out assigned tasks to the best of their ability.
- Volunteers are Ambassadors for the Town and must be a minimum (14) years of age and must be able to work independently and be comfortable around loud noise & large crowds. Dependable, professional, polite, positive, and enthusiastic with a genuine interest in helping others are important for the position.
- A volunteer meeting may be scheduled prior to the event date and attendance is important and appreciated.
- Positions may require you to stand for long periods. Please be prepared for outdoor weather conditions and dress accordingly (Rain gear, warm attire, comfortable shoes/boots, hats, gloves, water bottle, chair, food/snacks, etc.)
- A uniform shirt/hat/safety vest/lanyard may be provided and volunteers must agree to wear any gear that is provided.
- If unable to attend your scheduled volunteer time due to unforeseen circumstances or unable to fulfill your volunteer responsibilities, I agree to notify the Recreation & Events Coordinator immediately CELL: 705-529-5465
- I understand that my volunteer duties can be revoked at any time by Town staff if I do not follow procedures
